

Fox Control Field Days

EVERYONE WELCOME

Foxes are considered to be Australia's greatest predation threat to the survival of native fauna. Foxes are also widely regarded as a major threat to lamb production.

Come along to one of the two sessions and learn about the biology and history of foxes in Australia. Be informed about current fox control programs and discover how you can apply similar techniques to successfully manage foxes on your property.

WEDNESDAY 8TH SEPTEMBER
10.00am – 12.00pm
8444 Sth Gippsland Hwy
COAL CREEK
Mel. Ref 152 U10
BBQ LUNCH PROVIDED

Guest speakers include:

Stuart Murphy, Phillip Island Nature Park — overview of the Phillip Island Fox Control Program and future directions

Gareth George, DPI — integrated pest management, the use of 1080 baits, legalities of using 1080, constructing bait stations

WEDNESDAY 27th OCTOBER
10.00am– 12.00pm
Foster Memorial Arts Centre
Main Rd
FOSTER
Mel. Ref 708 D2
BBQ LUNCH PROVIDED

Guest speakers include:

David Farrar, Parks Victoria— overview of the Corner Inlet CFoC Fox Control Program for 2010-2011

Gareth George, DPI—integrated pest management, the use of 1080 baits, legalities of using 1080, constructing bait station

RSVP essential to SGLN: 5662 5759 or email: katew@wgcm.vic.gov.au

